To search, to serve, and to share – these are the steps in our growing treasury of experience. We search, reaching for new meaning and understanding; we serve, giving of that which we find; and we share, finally, uniting ourselves with all those who strive for common goals.

It is our hope that within these pages you will find a record of the searching, serving, and sharing which have been a part of your life here.

"In our era, the road to holiness necessarily passes through the world of action."

In appreciation to Dr. George Lynn who came to the Choir College with us four years ago. He has given all of us through Symphonic and Westminster Choirs the ability to see into our corporate selves, a knowledge of our personal integrity as leaders, and a sense of choral sound which is part of us. His consideration and help have been available to us as individuals at all times.

In appreciation for helping us to know that "During a working day, which is real only in God, the only poetry which can be real to you is the kind which makes you become real under God; only then is the poetry real for YOU, the art true. You no longer have time for – pastimes."* We have known him as a man who came to Westminster sharing the dream of another great man, and doing his utmost to fulfill that dream.

The Class of 1967

Appreciation

*from Hammarskjöld's "Markings".

Dedication

It is seldom in a lifetime that one is fortunate enough to know someone with a wealth of talents and resources, who gives of them constantly with untiring patience and understanding. In the presence of such a person, it is impossible not to grow both in intellect and spirit.

We have been highly privileged to have such an influence in our lives. It is one which has been an inspiration to all of us, guiding us to greater understanding of the studies we pursue, the music we sing, and finally, of our place as individuals in a changing world.

It is with the deepest admiration and gratitude that we, the Class of 1967, dedicate this edition of the Quadrangle to

DR. PRISCILLA SILZ

Founders

John Finley Williamson

Rhea B. Williamson

Unselfish sharing and serving must have always been a part of the lives of John Finley and Rhea B. Williamson. They shared with others their ideal of excellence in church musicianship and served as dedicated leaders in this field. Their contagious efforts to promote this ideal have been enlarged to an international scope. We are indeed grateful to these persons whose visions have enriched our lives.

ADMINISTRATION

Lee Hastings Bristol Jr.

We can believe that ours is a time of unprecedented opportunity for the musician when we realize that we can perform for more people in one half-hour on television than have entered Carnegie Hall in 25 years or J. S. Bach played to in his lifetime.

Here's hoping that you will want to continue to grow musically, intellectually, and spiritually in the days to come through self-study, practice, listening, reading, exposure to other teachers and institutions and influences that can augment and reinforce, and association with others who are trying to grow as well.

To you of the Class of 1967 go especially warm greetings and best wishes for the years ahead.

The President

Dean Of The College

Dr. Edward Eicher

From his warm smile and sincere efforts to serve the students and the College, one can declare the indispensability of Dr. Eicher as Dean of the College. We all appreciate his hard work in helping to attain Middle Atlantic States accreditation last spring.

Dr. George Lynn

Music Director

As Musical Director of the college, Dr. George Lynn exerts a tremendous influence over our lives. He challenges us, not just for a moment, but for a lifetime of striving toward perfection. And as composer, conductor, arranger, organist, and vocal teacher, he sets an example that is hard to match. It is truly a privilege to work with him.

CHOIRS

Westminster Choir

Affectionately known as our "varsity team," Westminster Choir represents the goals and dreams of every young singer here. It is comprised of 20 men and 20 women chosen for vocal ability and general musical excellence. This year the choir toured during the month of March, visiting North and South Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Maryland and Pennsylvania.

Symphonic Choir

To stand and sing before a leading symphony orchestra and world-famous conductor is the unforgettable experience of every symphonic choir member. This is the largest of the three choirs. It consists of all upper classmen who spend their time rehearsing major choral works. A part of this year's repetoire included Handel's "Messiah", Beethoven's "Missa Solemnis" and the Choral Finale to the "Ninth Symphony" and Lynn's "Gettysburg Address." This has proved to be another busy and successful year.

Chapel Choir

The Chapel Choir is where the "Westminster Sound" begins. This is the initial choir which is comprised of all incoming freshmen and transfer students. In their daily rehearsals Mr. Simpson works hard to devehop basic vocal technique and build an admirable repertoire of anthems. Each spring a selected group of voices embark on a short tour.

The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Nicholas Harsanyi, is a fine display of the instrumental talents on campus. Its members compose several ensembles which perform at various times during the year, and put on a joint concert in the spring. Their repertoire this year includes a Heinichen Trio Sonata and a Mozart Trio, K. 498.

Music Educators' National Conference

The student chapter of MENC is a vital organization on campus for education majors. This group meets at least once a month, drawing upon speakers, demonstrations, and occasional trips to enrich the programs which build upon the experiences of future music educators. One of the high points of every year is a trip to the MENC convention in Atlantic City, N.J.

The Class of 1966

Senior Class Will

We, the class of 1967, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath our earthly remains to those who must continue their efforts after our passing.

David Scott leaves his Brunnhilde to Erick Brunner.

Margaret Hansen wills Dr. Duba's mounds of correspondence to Gail Brown.

David Perry bequeaths every other beat of his vibrato to Dennis Chamberlain and his infallible perfect pitch to Mickey Lazenby.

Jim McCallum wills his cannon to Dr. Lynn for Westminster Choir 1968.

Clarence Neumann leaves a soiled apron to whoever wants it.

Karen Urquhart bequeaths her helpings of potatoes and desserts to Bruce Douglas Campbell.

Bill Palmatier wills his ambition to Amos.

Sandi Maxwell wills her silver shovel to Karen Clinton, Brenda Moore, and Sarah Thompson in the hope that it will aid them as much as it has her.

Stephen Weicksel leaves his ability to work closely with a President to Mrs. Bristol.

Carolee Gans wills her constant indecision about her major to Bill Payn.

Ken Clayton leaves his MENC notes to Bill Nash.

Chris Rannie bequeaths to John Bate her beloved dog "Pablo."

Martha Lattimore leaves her bandages and splints to Aspirin Annie or anyone else spastic enough to need them.

Dennis McCleary wills his metronome to Dr. Markey.

Karen Miner leaves her height to Bill Payn.

Art Lesser leaves the confusion of transferring credits to some poor incoming transfer student.

Marge Blossfeld wills her perfect pitch to all future freshman ear-training classes.

Clyde Buckner wills his citation slips to John Bate with full confidence that he will distribute them fairly among the gang.

Mary Banta wills her five 8:00's to anyone who likes to get up for breakfast.

Chuckie Debes wills to Miss Laverty her ability to organize.

Donna Yamaji leaves all her crayons and paper scraps to future decoration committees.

Dick Frey wills to the underclassmen his faculty permission to remove his shoes during lectures.

Ruthann Greenawald bequeaths her metronome to Miss Lois A. Young.

Anna Daeche leaves to Mr. Richmond her ability to balance books.

Sam Dillahey leaves Ed Morrison that "George Lynn" sweatshirt.

Bonnie Bird wills a pair of rubber gloves to all future piano majors, to protect their hands from the swamp weather.

Barbara Clarke leaves her fingerings of the B minor chorale to Dr. McDonald.

John Brobston wills his "Meat" to the commons.

Janet Huff leaves to the underclassmen the persistence and "stick-to-it-iveness" to get through Westminster in 7 years.

Tim Wilborn leaves his wild ties to Mr. Boepple.

Lucy Tong wills her hair to Mr. Martin for his hair-splitting exactness.

Gene Hopkins wills to Bill Nash the taper and carillon key.

Nancy Mangion leaves her incomparable dexterity at the piano keyboard to Jerry LeDoux.

The entire class wills to all future senior classes a bottle of tranquilizers and one red robe.

"If our Red Robes could talk . . .

They would have some wondrous tales to tell! They have watched for four years as we emerged from timid freshmen into confident (?) seniors.

The first sight they saw as they emerged from their brown boxes was the whole Chapel Choir in "line-up" waiting acrimoniously to have hemlines adjusted. They went with us to Newark as we sang the traditional "Messiah" at Old First Church, and when we returned, listened patiently to our mutterings over the wrecked rooms. At Christmas time they "decorated" our rooms with a seasonal red glow while we worked on our Christmas Dance, "Symphony in White," complete with parachute ceiling. (Thus began Donna Yamaji's long career as decorations chairman.) The robes glowed with pride when Bonnie Bird won the Carol Contest for the Class of '67, taking the trophy from the Class of '64 who had held it for three years. As the year moved on, the robes went with us to Atlantic City to sing in Convention Hall, and on our famous 13-day tour to the South. (They grew Mouseketeer ears briefly when we wanted to take our stuffed animals on tour with us!) They mercifully covered the unsightly bulges in our figures from all the Southern Fried Chicken and ham. But our poor robes were highly insulted when the girls swapped them for coats and ties one day because Mr. Simpson said that was the only proper dress for choir!! They mushed through the World's Fair Opening Day with us, blowing wildly in the c-c-cold winds of the New Jersey Pavilion. They rustled softly in the spring breezes, approving of the May Day festivities and our freshman attendant, Ellen Severson. And finally, they marched down the aisle of Princeton Chapel with us in our first graduation ceremony. They spent a quiet summer at the bottom of various and sundry trunks, emerging rumpled and dirty to sing "Aufersteh'n" the following year!

Sophomore year began auspiciously as the robes journeyed to Washington D.C. to sing the Beethoven Ninth. They shook slightly due to our nervousness over our first major performance. On the return trip, the robes grew a little redder than usual when one of the buses caught fire! Then, adorning a few of us who sang, the robes watched the success of our Thanksgiving banquet. The twelve members of our class who made Westminster Choir gave their robes an extra workout in the Mozart Requiem under Scherchen, but they gave them up in favor of brown hooded ones for "Carmina Burana." All our robes did quite a bit of traveling that year: The Mahler 2nd with Stokowski, five performances of the Verdi Requiem under Ormandy, and the never-to-be-forgotten "Elijah" performance at Dr. McCurdy's church. Our red robes were right in style (color-wise, that is) for our Valentine's Dance when the decorations included bon-bon candies hung from the ceiling. Much to our disappointment a red robe was not worn by Mary Banta, our representative, to the May Day ceremonies that spring. At graduation our poor robes became streaked with our parting tears as we all bade Dr. McCurdy farewell.

"Veni, Creator Spiritus" and Leonard Bernstein called our red robes back into action for our Junior year – that year of being on top of the world. The seventeen members of our class in Westminster Choir went to Washington in the midst of the Mahler and used their robes as pillows in the barracks. From the duties assigned them by the sergeant (would you believe latrine duty?) you never would have known the men were toting tie and tails. Springtime kept the robes hurrying around the town of Princeton as we sang Mozart Vespers and the Bach B Minor Mass at McCarter Theater; and our 40th Anniversary Convocation, the Methodist 200th Anniversary service, and graduation – all at Princeton Chapel. Other concerts this year included the American Bible Society 50th Anniversary by the entire student body and the Mozart Requiem by Westminster Choir at Mr. Carwithen's church – and of course, Westminster Choir's well-remembered western tour. The high point of the year was our May Day. David Scott's red robe cavorted across the quadrangle as he directed the band in a glorious exposition of Sousa marches. Despite the cold weather our "Disneyland Fantasia" was a great success and our Junior May Court attendant, Karen Urquhart, didn't freeze to death after all. We packed our robes for the summer for the last time after graduation this year.

Senior year! Was anything ever so traumatic? In between papers for Dr. Duba, orchestration assignments, and Martinology, the robes found time to sing the "Messiah" in New York with Sir Malcolm Sargent and the "Missa Solemnis" with Steinberg. Our Christmas week was a memorable experience for all of us, as the senior girls lined the stairway in their red robes, singing carols. The "stars" of the festivities were Beth Barkley and Michael Stairs, who were Mary and Joseph in the manger scene on the quadrangle. All year long, first floor of North Hall trembled and the red robes crashed and burned as "weighty matters" thundered overhead! The robes made their final journey in the spring to sing with Stokowski once again, this time Beethoven's Ninth, Lynn's "Gettysburg Address," and Gabrieli's "In Ecclesiis." It was a great final "Brünnhilde" for the red robes, before we exchanged them for black ones at Commencement.

Where will our red robes go now? To some church choir? To graduate school? Or will some of them return again with other freshmen to begin new adventures?

MESSAGE TO THE GRADUATING CLASS

Are you really leaving?

Do you really believe you're leaving Westminster Choir College?

Well, you are not. You never will leave Westminster, because you will take a part of it with you wherever you go.

What's more, you will also take with you the affectionate good wishes of your president!

A SCHULMERICH
FIVE-OCTAVE, SIXTY-ONE NOTE
"ARLINGTON CARILLON"

INSTALLED AT WESTMINSTER CHOIR COLLEGE, PRINCETON, N.J.

The growing acceptance of the "Arlington" Carillon is good news for organists! Schulmerich is the world's ONLY producer of modern bell instruments with both English and Flemish type tuning, as well as chimes, thus providing percussion instruments to meet the requirements of any church or institution. Both bell instruments have all the traditional partials, including the rich, colorful minor third distinguishing a true bell tone from chimes which lack this quality.

The Schulmerich "Arlington" Carillon is the ONLY modern instrument having the sub-octave hum tone which together with its other partials identifies the Flemish type tuning. All types of harmony, major, minor, augmented, or diminished chords or any other type of chord, arpeggio or trill, can be played without restriction. With its 61 bells, 5-octave chromatic range, played from one keyboard, all types of carillonistic effects are possible. Individual expression pedal controls for bass and treble bells provide wide dynamic range for solo and accompaniment so necessary to true carillon music.

Truly, the "Arlington" is the 20th Century carillon embodying the tradition and color of the finest cast bell instrument. While retaining all the desirable features of cast bell carillons, weight, huge tower construction, keyboard limitations, complex automatic operation and enormous cost are eliminated.

If you've dreamed of the unfettered use of bells from the tower or with the organ, investigate the "Arlington" Carillon now! Write to:

Acknowledgements

The job of compiling a yearbook is an enormous one, and cannot be accomplished by one or two people. This book holds within its covers the imagination and hard work of a great many people. It is at this time that we would like to express our appreciation to all those who gave of their time and talent so freely.

The yearbook staff worked faithfully and long, and deserve a deep vote of thanks. Particular thanks go to Donna Yamaji, the art and layout editor, who spend long hours in artistic labor; thanks are also due Kathy Ruof, assistant editor; Karin Gustafson, typing editor; and photography editors Richard Ratcliffe and Allan Ontko; and our freshman representative, Sarah Miller. Staff members also deserve much praise for their efforts: Ray Weidner, whose art work is something special, and Kathy Mickel of the art staff, and Karen Clinton of the literary staff.

We are indebted to Miss Maud Thomas, our advisor, and to the entire Senior class for their collective and individual help. Special thanks to Beth Barkley who wrote our "In Appreciation" to Dr. Lynn, and to Margaret Hansen for her help with the class history.

To the entire student body goes our gratitude for their cooperation. We are grateful to Taylor Publishing Company and Mr. Norris Ashe for their valuable help, and to all our patrons and advertisers, without whom this book would not be possible.

It has been a great pleasure and a most rewarding experience working on the yearbook, and it is our sincere hope that it will be as meaningful to you as it is to us.
